

Psalm 46

Prayer: Dear Lord, You protect us and save us. You are the Almighty God who lives with us. Thank You! Make us trust You, no matter what bad things happen in our lives. We know You love and take care of us, because You sent Jesus to be our Savior. Bless our study and make our faith strong. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

Psalm 46 is a song of salvation and praise. God is mighty to save us. Therefore we don't fear anything.

Psalm 46:1-3.

- How does the Psalm writer describe God?
- Imagine yourself seeing verses 2 and 3 happening around you. Would you be afraid? Would you be calm? Why?

Psalm 46:4-7.

- Verse 4 mentions a river. What river is that? (Think about these passages: John 4:13-14, John 7:37-39, Revelation 22:1-2.)
- The nations are angry and ready to fight. Where is God?
- God speaks to judge the earth, and the earth melts. What does that mean for God's enemies? What does that mean for God's people?

Psalm 46:8-11.

- Nations fight for power and control and to prove themselves right. In the end, who has true power and control? Who will prove Himself right? How?
- When we feel people are attacking us, what do we want to do? What does God tell us to do (verse 10)?
